

Learn the basics of ISO 14971 with working examples, team exercises and our industry knowledge and experience. An overview of risk management and assessment techniques, an understanding of how to apply the standard with a detailed insight and examples of risk analysis techniques.

Duration: Half day

Language: English or German

Course Content

- › ISO 14971 overview
- › Risk management planning
- › The risk management file and responsibilities
- › Interdependencies and relationship to other standards
- › Risk assessing hazards and intended safety
- › Risk analysis techniques (FMEA, FMECA and FTA)
- › Risk control techniques
- › Risk benefit analysis
- › Post market activities

Who Should Attend?

Regulatory, Quality, Design, Development and Manufacturing personnel

Prerequisites

This course is suitable for delegates with no prior knowledge of ISO 14971 or can be customised for a more experienced audience.

Training Schedule

Half day training sessions typically run for 4 hours, including a short break. This can be adapted as required to meet specific business requirements.

Price: £275 per person for a minimum of 2 and up to 7 participants. Thereafter a fixed rate will be charged for the training session.

To Book:

For a convenient and cost effective training solution, we can work with your organisation to develop bespoke training to meet your exact requirements.

To book this course or discuss customised training, please email us at info@lorit-consultancy.com or call us on +44 7708 360023.

www.lorit-consultancy.com